GOSPEL MEDITATION – Fr. John Muir ©LPI

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel.

Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe, but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.

OUR WEEKLY GIVING

Will be reported in the July 19 bulletin due to vacation/holiday schedule

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED!

Connect with Tradition and Grow Your Faith

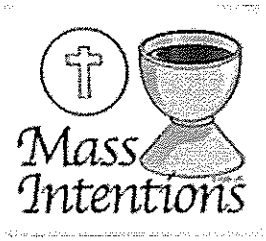

The Virtue of Perseverance

"It is not easy for man, wounded by sin, to maintain moral balance," we read in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1811). "Christ's gift of salvation offers us the grace necessary to persevere in the pursuit of the virtues."

Perseverance is unique because without it, we cannot grow in any of the other virtues. If we cannot persevere, we cannot carry the cross. Faith, hope, love, mercy, justice, temperance — these virtues are the fruits of a Christian life, and perseverance is the soil in which they take root.

Like the soil in any garden, it has to be nourished. Perseverance is fed by trials, difficulties, and temptations. "We rejoice in our sufferings," writes St. Paul, "knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us" (Romans 5:4-5).

Mass intentions are specific prayers of intercession and thanksgiving offered during the Mass. They are requested to honor the deceased (for the repose of their soul), celebrate milestones (birthdays, anniversaries), or pray for the sick and special personal needs. We have three ways you can make a request:

1) Drop an envelope in the Weekly donation basket with your request and donation.

2) Our Website - complete the mass intention request form under "Reach Out" – followed by making payment via the collection basket or mailing a check to the office.

3) Contact the office - Mellen, Sanborn and Highbridge are welcome to call/visit the office to arrange for mass intentions. Glidden should continue to contact Krystel Dunlavy for mass intentions.

Recommended donation is $20 per intention
