GOSPEL MEDITATION – Fr. John Muir ©LPI

Thirty-Third Sunday Ordinary Time

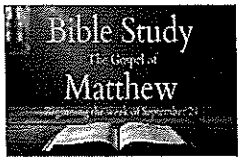

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, "Let's have a great time." The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. "I don't want to lose it," he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father's invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground" (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.

How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God's gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

Week 8 — The Resurrection and the Great Commission

Read: Matthew 28

Key passage : Matthew 28:1–20

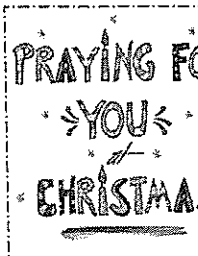

Especially: "He is not here; for he has risen, as he said."
And: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..."

Everything in Christianity depends upon the Resurrection.

Jesus: Conquers Death, Fulfills Scripture, Establishes His Authority, Sends His Disciples, Commands Baptism, Promises to Remain with His Church

"Christmas Prayer Friends" Sign-up by Nov 22! Become a "Christmas Friend" who will hold up an individual and/or family in prayer throughout the season of Advent. It's anonymous and reciprocal – similar to a Secret Santa or a Giving Tree. As a participant, you will receive the gift of prayer from an anonymous Christmas Friend and you, in return, will also be a Christmas Friend to someone else.

To participate just complete one of the "blue" Christmas Friend Prayer Cards and put it in the basket in back of church by November 22. On the first Sunday of Advent (Nov 28-29), all who completed a Christmas Friend Prayer Card will draw the name of their new Christmas friend from the basket.

The activity will conclude on the fourth Sunday of Advent when you can either hand-deliver or mail a small token/love gift, i.e. a Christmas card – sharing how you have been praying for them. May God bless our community as we offer the gift of prayer to one another this Advent!
